Conolulu Star-Bulletin

RILEY H. ALLEN

FRIDAY......OCTOBER 6, 1916.

DON'T BE A "SEACKER" TOMORROW!

for its existence is "slacker."

There are slackers not only in Europe but in the papers United States, in Hawaii.

The political slacker is the man who is so lazy, so thoughtless or so indifferent to good government that he refuses to take the trouble of voting.

Don't be a slacker tomorrow, Mr. Citizen! a sitizen from the voting-booth when men are being chosen to govern the territory or the city. politics," "rotten government" and the like.

politics triumphs.

Note.- The polls are open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. location of the polling-booth in each precinct on Oahu.

HAWAII'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO WAR RELIEF son law not so much as labor legislation as an as-

In the two years from October 1, 1914, to Sepfor war relief more than $120,000, through one organization, the War Relief Committee.

The figures are as follows: Received-$120,365.55. Disbursed-$120,154, as follows:

Belgians-$48,700. Prince of Wales Fund-$75.

France-$7000. Serbia-$9725.

Austria-$1000. Children's Fund-$11.15.

Germany $43. Poland-$23,725.

American Red Cross-$1773.

Urumiah (Armenia) - $500.

Armenia-$27,600.

Wireless $2.25.

In the last year, ending September 30, the receipts ments $45,602.25.

The accounts have been audited and declared cor-wantage, rect by W. J. Forbes, auditor of the fund.

This is an imposing total but it is by no means the extent of Hawaii's generosity, or of Hawaii's that he is trying to efface the memory of that un contribution of love and sympathy measured in fortunate phrase "too proud to fight." But he will terms of financial support. The British and Ger- be a long time doing it. For a public speaker who man organizations have probably given an amount likes to play on nicely-turned phrases he made a considerably in excess of the foregoing, through glaring mistake with this one. various channels, while individual and private contributions which have gone forward steadily since the outbreak of this great, sad conflict very likely equal all the semi-public funds.

money benefit which the war has meant to these islands.

"GERMANY WAITS AND ASKS."

Germany's internal friction in government circles s emphasized by the wide notice attracted abroad y the suggestion of a coalition government, advanclight on the attack upon Chancellor von Bethmann- watered stock.

"Never, since the beginning of the war," he writes, and apprehension the forthcoming meeting of the Reichstag. The period since the last meeting has grought us successes, but also many difficulties, military setbacks and new enemies.

"After two years of fighting, bloodshed and selfdenial, the peace for which every heart longs is still at an immesurable distance. The fighting lust of the enemy has been revived by Russian successes and the entry of Rumania. The whole people stand at the gate waiting and asking.

"The Reichstag leaders will have to listen to speeches stronger than ever on the events of the oust few weeks. Therefore, it were wise to consider carefully whether the leaders of all our great parties should not be called together to form a coalition EDITOR

Comment in these columns some weeks ago that after a rather ineffective first stump-tour Charles The British term of contempt for the man who E. Hughes is now delivering some smashing attacks, dodges military service when his country is fighting is borne out by the opinion of Honolulans recently returned from the mainland, and by the editorial There are slackers not only in war but in peace, expressions of Republican and independent news-

HUGHES IS MARCHING ON.

The Democratic newspapers continue to play upon Hughes' "coldness" and to charge that his speeches fall flat, but that is not the personal testimony of those in his audiences.

He has apparently found an issue of national im-Only the most imperative of reasons should keep portance and of popular appeal in the Adamson "eight-hour" law-which is not an eight-hour law at all. His early attacks on the administration-The "slacker" is the sort of chap who never votes criticism of the dismissal of the director of the ceuand who always complains about "dirty American sus, of the "deserving Democrat" James M. Sullivan of Santo Domingo, etc.—failed because the nation But the man who refuses to do his share in clean refused to consider these matters as of national impolitics has no right to raise his voice in one sylla- portance compared with the European war, Mexble of protest if clean politics is downed and unclean ico, the hyphen and other issues brought to the fore in the pre-convention campaigns.

Now Mr. Hughes has found a great national ques-In another column of today's paper is published the tion to discuss and is discussing it with the force, clarity and impression of unbending sincerity which were his predominant characteristics when he was governor of New York. He is discussing the Adamsault upon one of the foundation-stones of American government - the structure and function of tember 30, 1916 inclusive, Hawaii has contributed Congress. He is showing how the railway brotherhoods like highwaymen held a pistol at the head of the country's business and demanded coin from its purse. He is showing how the president and Congress yielded to the demand and virtually abdicated their offices—on the eve of election.

And his campaign is gathering momentum as November draws near.

Two of the three members of the board named by Wilson to investigate the Adamson eight-hour law are already members of federal boards and as such will certainly be regarded by the public as part of the Wilson administration. Commissioner Clark of the Interstate Commerce Commissioner is a capable man, and George Rublee of New Hampshire in his short tenure on the federal trade board, has been satisfactory, but the public is likely to regard their finding as rather less impartial than if they had this committee were $45.813.40 and the disburse, been wholly unconnected with federal office. The chairman, Gen. Goethals, is under no such disad-

President Wilson's recent speeches give evidence

And it is for the people to decide whether they will have for a president one trained in successful statesmanship or one trained in attractive rhetoric And Hawaii could double, triple, multiply by ten Governor Hughes may not be able to make catch of it. its contributions without approaching the actual phrases or limericks but he is the greatest living American statesman.—San Francisco Chronicle.

> The turn of events enables Charles E. Hughes to hand down an opinion of the law recently hurried a while and see the morning sunshine. through Congress without waiting for the case to arrive in the supreme court,-Washington Star.

A saloon proprietor is under fire by the license d by Hans Sikovich, a member of the Roichstag, in board for alleged diluting of whisky served across the Berlin Tageblatt. The article also throws some his bar to confiding patrons. Case of too much

Speaking of the Busy B, we notice that Brooklyn has the German people awaited with such tension Battled Bravely to the Baseball Bunting in one of only $1 for Lowrie. Various legal league, and Boston Bagged the Beans in the other.

> True to accepted principle in this war, all the official announcements concerning the Rumanian raid of Bulgaria are contradictory.

The new five-cent loaf is much smaller, but the nickel is the same size as ever—and just as hard to get .- Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

We would say from a casual scrutiny that the Progressive party in Hawaii has been successfully amalgamated with the G. O. P.

We refuse to get excited again about Hillebrand Glen until after the world's series.

Y. M. C. A. is a thing of reality. At a Canon William L. Auld, George A. meeting last evening the organizers Brown and Dr. R. D. Barnes. of the club secured the final names, and the first rehearsal will be held at in Honolulu, and the prospects for a II successful season are bright. Many of the vocalists have made a success in solo work, and the first concert will be given in the near future. The names of the members of the Glee Club are as follows: First ten-ors, Arthur F. Wall, James D. Dougherty, Philip Hall, George Andrus. Second tenors, Frank Midkiff, Roland Gay, Theodore Awana, Tom Carter, Will Soler. Baritone, Stanley Livingston, Chester Livingston, R. K. Thomas, Hegarth Pettijohn, Neil Slattery. The long-looked-for glee club of the Bass, A. E. Larimer, E. G. Bartlett, the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening. of the Christian Endeavor Society of & Withington, of counsel for the de-George Andrus, who has had charge Central Union church this evening. fendants in the noted "Lowrie suit," of the musical features at the Y. M. The regular Coristian Endeavor ser which has been in Massachusetts C. A. for the past few months, has se- vice will be held at 6:30 o'clock Sun- court; for years. coned a number of the leading singers day evening.

W. J. Lowrie's long legal fight against Alexander & Baldwin interests, ailied with Hawaiian Commercia & Sugar Company, has been finally defeated, according to cable advices There will be no business meeting from Washington yesterday to Castle

Lowrie claimed $400,000 damages

VITAL STATISTICS

BORN. OUGHER-On August 19 at Colebrook, Barry, Wales, to Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lougher, Soledad Sugar Co., Cienfuegos, Cuba, a son.

ROST-In Honolulu, October 5, 1916 to Mr. and Mrs. William T. Frost of Piikoi street, near Wilder avenue, a daughter.

LIN-In Honolulu, September 28, 1916 to Mr and Mrs. Lin Sam Fat of Ala daughter-Yuen.

(ANE-In Honolulu, September 1: 1916, to Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Kane of 1265 Pua lane, Palama, a daughter-Ellen Pua. UBBEL-in Honolulu, October 4, 1916, to Mr. and Mrs. George Hub-TOWNSEND-In Honolulu, September 28, 1916, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Townsend of 40 Vineyard street, a daughter-Any.

MARRIED WOLFF-PRATHER-In Honolulu, Oc tober 5, 1916, Edwin E. Wolff and Makura from Scattle and is registered Mrs. Frances Prather, Rev. Leon L. at the Blaisdell hotel. Loofbourow, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating; wit-, MR. and MRS. GEORGE ANGUS nesses-Frank Van Gieson and Miss are due to return to Honolulu next Rose Cunningham.

ROSE-SEABURY-In Honolulu, October 4, 1916. Lawrence M. Rose and Miss Marie Seabury, Rev. Father Stephen J. Alencastre, pastor of the from a trip to California. Catholic Church of the Sacred Hearts, Kaimuki, officiating; witnesses-Mrs, Maria Isabella Seabury and Olin R. Allison.

COURSEN-CABELL - In Portland, Ore., September 26, 1916, Raymond Coursen of Hilo, Hawaii, and Miss Frances Cabell, in St. Mark's church; witnesses-Mrs. A. M. Curtis, mother, and Rudolph Cabell, brother of the bride.

DIED

GILLILAND-In Honolulu, October 5 1916. John Richard Gilliland of 137 Vineyard street, student, a native of this city, 18 year, 10 months and 27 days old.

AU-In the Beretania Sanitarium, Honolulu, October 5, 1916, Mrs. Lau Tat Tung of School street, near Liliha, a native of China, 27 years, 3 months and 24 days old.

BENITO-In the Kauikeolani Children's Hospital, Honolulu, October 4, 1916, Augustine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Benito of Kawaialoa, Waialua, this island, student, a native of Spain, 9 years, 9 months and 14,days old.

-WILLIAM L. CREED: The addition already made to our force shows their are expectations of a great tourist traffic this coming season.

-WILLIAM P. FENNELL: From our meeting yesterday some liquor dealers around town will know that they must obey the law or quit.

-FRANK STEVENSON, emergency

ning to us yesterday and the main reason for their hurts was booze. -E. K. ALAPAI, new police sera little concert. Pretty soft, eh? -ARTHUR McDEFFEE, chief of de-

-J. M. MONSARRAT, police magistrate: Thursday's session of court was the shortest in a long time.

does a person good to get out once in The race meet at Hot Springs, Ark which was scheduled for Nov. 11 was declared off after Governor Hays notified the sheriff to stop gambling.

for alleged wrongful dismissal from the Hawaiian Commercial Sugar Company, of which he was manager in 1901-2. The case was begun in 1907 in the Massachusetts court. A large SET BAIL AT $5000 amount of testimony was taken here. In 1915 the court directed a verdict stages have been passed through since then and the latest is that the supreme court of Massachusetts has denied a tention in the islands.

personal

W. E. WALL booked in San Francis co recently for the Matsonia, due next

MRS. OTTO H. SWEZEY is expect-Moana, near Sheridan street, s ed to arrive on the Matsonia from San > CECILE FOHEY is a visitor in Honolulu from the Twin Cities, signing from St. Paul.

FRED WATERHOUSE is expected bel of 360 Buckle lane, a daughter. to arrive on the Matsonia next week from the mainland.

> F. W. MACFARLANE should arrive on the Matsonia next week after a trip to California. SONCIE LOOMIS arrived in the week on the Matsonia. MRS. A. GARTLEY is expected to

MR. and MRS. F. C. ATHERTON are among the passengers expected in town recently from Kaneohe, windward Oahu, to spend a few days.

next week on the Matsonia.

on the Matsonia from San Francisco.

PRINCESS DAVID KAWANANA-KOA is looked for next week, coming on the Matsonia from San Francisco.

A. B. ARLEIGH is expected to return here next week on the Matsonia, having booked recently for that

O. METCALFE of Victoria, B. C., is a visitor in Honolulu. He came in the Makura and is staying at the Blaisdell hotel.

F. Q. CANNON, acting manager of the Honolulu Gas Company, is among the passengers booked to return on the Matsonia next week.

MR, and MRS. L. G. JENKS are in Honolulu for a short visit from Walalua. Jenks is connected with the Wajalua Agricuitural Company.

MR. AND MRS. W. S. PALMER of Hilo are rejoicing in the advent of a daughter. Miss Palmer arrived on Thursday, according to wireless advices from the father.

JAMES D. LEVENSON, Ad Club

booster and Honolulu businessman, is booked to return on the Matsonia hospital assistant: They came arun- after an absence of half a year or more on the mainland. LAWRENCE M. ROSE and Miss Marie Seabury were married on Wednesgeant: The extra policemen down day by Rev. Father Stephen J. Alenstairs eat all they can and then have castre, pastor of the Catholic Church of the Secred Heart, Punahou. JAMES T. COPLAND, a veteran of tectives: Information brought to me the Civil War and a member of the by a reporter that a Honolulu visitor Grand Army of the Republic, left yester the soldiers' home at Youngville, WILLIAM HARDY and wife, who > have been visiting in the city, will return to their home at Waimea, Kauai, next Tuesday. Mr. Hardy is territorial hydrographic assistant on the Garden Island. JOSHUA D. TUCKER, formerly > public lands commissioner, expects to leave in the Mauna Kea Saturday afternoon to collect data on the Big Island of ancient helaus for Public Works Superintendent Forbes.

FOR LONOKAPU, WHO IS HELD FOR MURDER

Henry Lonokapu, a Hawaiian indict rehearing to Lowrie, who had filed a ed by the territorial grand jury on a petition for it. This is believed to charge of first degree murder, was adwrite "finis" in a piece of litigation mitted to bail in the sum of $5000 towhich at one time attracted wide at day by Circuit Judge Ashford. Up to press time this afternoon Lonokapu

Bracelet Watch is not only beautiful but use ful-14 kt. and Gold Filled in our large stock.

VIEIRA JEWELRY CO., 113 Hotel St.

The Weedon Homestead

Valuable corner property, Alexander and Bingham Streets.

Over an acre in area; beautiful trees; a three bedroom

Price only $6500.00.

Guardian Trust Co., Ltd. Tel. 3688 Stangenwald Bldg.

DR. RHEE DENIES THAT KOREAN SCHOOL TEACHING 'ANTI-JAPANESE'

cerning His Work and That Y. M. Park Are Answered

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin. Dear Sir: In your recent issue it was reported that I am teaching the people of my race in this country to "anti-Japanese," that Mr. Young M. Park and myself have ceased to be friends and that we are continually squabbling for individual power. This report is far from true and I do not wish to have your read ers misinformed regarding the Korean

(1.) We do not teach in our school anything anti-Japanese. We are teaching, on the contrary, the Christian principle of loving all mankind. Our American teachers are missionaries, at least in their sympathy, and they are too cosmopolitan to teach anything against any race or any particular untion Our Korean teachers have no time to teach anything but the course be aboard the Matsonia, returning of study that is laid out for all the Korean children. I, myself, am too busy with other duties to teach any class at all. If I am misrepresented to the local Japanese papers, I want them to know that I do not wish to create any anti-Japanese sentiment L. PENDES and P. BYRNE arrived among our people, nor do I wish them to publish any anti-Korean statements | Dr' Rhee refers were made by others.)

was still in custody, having been un- Ashford recently declined to enter-MR. and MRS. J. M. RIGGS are able to secure surety. The request tain an oral motion for ball. among the Honolulans booked to come for bail was made in a written motion filed by Attorneys William J. Sheldon and William T. Rawlins, est automatic telephone exchange in counsel for the defendant. Judge the world.

Allegations of Nipponese Con- in their papers or in any other paper. (2.) Mr. Park and myself have not ceased to be friends. We are on just as good terms as ever. Although our views are sometimes more or less different, we are working together in harmony. I would suggest that our Japanese friends need not worry so much about the alleged squabbles among a couple of Koreans, but should rather worry about the constant squabbles between several of the local Japa-

> (3.) I desire no power, neither does Mr. Park. We are both endeavoring to do whatever we can to help our people on these islands. If we want money it is because we need it for the work which we are doing for the Korean people. Trying to promote the welfare and interest of our own people educationally and religiously must not be regarded as anti-Japanese.

I beg to add one word here. If the Japanese people really wish to be friendly toward the Koreans, either in their homeland or abroad, they must remember that Koreans as a race must have certain unalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and pursuit of happiness.

> Truly yours, SYNGMAN RHEE.

(The Star-Bulletin article specifically said that the statements to which

Portsmouth, England, has the larg-

Will it Happen to You?

Accident or sickness. Protect yourself and your family against both by the 5-in-1 Policy.

PACIFIC MUTUAL

Agents Wanted-Apply F. H. Beckett

Address Waterhouse Trust Co.

Up on Prospect Ave.

Corner of Hackfeld Street, overlooking the magnificent panorama of ocean and city, is a

5-Room Home for $3,850

No reason but that business calls the owner away could induce him to sell. Lot is 75x120, improved with bearing fruit trees, cocoanut palms, etc. Garage and servants' quarters. Small guest cottage in yard.

PHONE 3477

TRENT TRUST COLTD

CHAS. G. HEISER, JR., TREAS. L. H. BEADLE, SEC'Y

Furnished Houses

1626 Makiki st. .....

9 rooms partly furnished; 5 cottages, 7 rooms in all.

Unfurnished

..... 30.00 (Detached cottage, 1 bedroom.) ..... 45,00 ..... 30.00 27.50 ...... 18.00 13th and Claudine......2

Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., Ltd.

Sole Agents Fort and Merchant